

11

June

Friday

Wk-24 163-203

2004

Many males with many females and offsprings or multimale bisexual groups.

08.00

Ex- Gorilla, Spider monkey, Wolly monkey, squirrel monkey.

09.00

→ There are 3-8 adult males in group.

10.00

→ Each of which has 5-7 bonded females.

11.00

→ Multimale bisexual groups are generally larger than other social groups.

12.00

→ One such group can have up to 100.

13.00

→ Multimale bisexual is terrestrial nature.

14.00

→ Those which do not divide in smaller feeding groups. ex- gorillas, human langurs.

15.00

→ Those which divide daily into smaller feeding groups. ex- macaques and baboons.

16.00

→ In gorillas and human langurs is multiple bisexual type.

17.00

→ Next category of multimale bisexual groups come rhesus, hamadrya baboons, olive baboons. live in large groups of many males and females.

18.00

Appointments

JUNE

S M T W T F S

1 2 3 4 5

6 7 8 9 10 11 12

13 14 15 16 17 18 19

20 21 22 23 24 25 26

2004

2004

The ghesus is widely distributed in India, ~~the~~

June
Saturday

12

Wk-24 164-202

Lives in large multimale bisexual groups.

08.00

⑤ Diffused Social parties:-

09.00

Ex- Pygmy, chimpanzee, are found in Zaire, and chimpanzee are found from Guinea to Zaire and in Uganda and Tanzania.

10.00

11.00

→ Their social structure is more variable than other primates.

12.00

→ They follow no strict social organization.

13.00

→ They may be seen in bands of males and female groups.

14.00

→ with or without offspring.

15.00

→ form large troops of males and females with young.

16.00

→ They may also be wandering alone.

17.00

18.00

Sunday 13

JULY

S M T W T F S

1 2 3

4 5 6 7 8 9 10

11 12 13 14 15 16 17

18 19 20 21 22 23 24

Appointments

2004